

Cumberland Island

Do you want to go camping on an island of wild horses, be taken back to the Carnegie family's glorious lifestyle, and visit one of the most impressive Southern vacation spots; Cumberland Island is home to hundreds of wild horses; Greyfield Inn, named by Travel + Leisure as one of the Top 100 Hotels in the U.S.; and some of the most gorgeous camping on the East Coast.

Georgia's largest and most southern barrier island, with pristine marsh forests, undeveloped beaches and wide marshes. Cumberland Island is perfect for those who want to experience all that Georgia's coast has to offer for outdoor and nature lovers.